Exalted Ruler's Corner

We have made it through what has probably been the strangest Summer any of us can remember. While I am sure that like you, we did not envision things the way that happened, we do have a slice of normalcy or two coming back to us.

The Lodge has reopened, albeit on a very limited basis. It is nice to see some friendly faces again and we hope to see more of you in the near future.

Meetings are back on their regular schedule in a very socially distant manner. All precautions are being properly taken. We are looking to add some fun nights coming up that we can still do and be following all protocols.

We would like to start a coed dart league and a regular Friday night cornhole game as well. Plans would be for an October start. If you haven't tried the game it is a lot of fun and anyone can play.

If you are interested in these events, please contact the Lodge. Things will get going again, but we need you here to make them happen. Stay safe and well!

Fraternally,
 Mark Loucks
 Exalted Ruler Colonie Lodge 2192
